 CLASS ROLL ***

NANCY BAKER KELLY ...Nancy and Don spend winters in Naples, Florida, and summers in the mountains of North Carolina. Their activities center around traveling, golf, friends, and children, Schuyler and Amy, and their families. They have four grandchildren and four step-grandchildren. Nancy still enjoys studying watercolor painting in the mountains, but hopes to continue classes in Naples this winter....Special school memories include decorating the Donaldson's (Jim's and Joe's) car for the fair parade, ice skating at Hamilton Lake, basketball games at AHS gym, and the YMCA Teen Canteen.

DORIS BALLIET WEBER...Since Galen's retirement, Doris and Galen have been working in the church, helping neighbors, and babysitting. Their vacations are spent with two of their children and grandchildren who live in New Jersey. Son, Steve, and his wife have a four-year old son and are close by.

ROBERT BATES...Bob says that not much has changed for him in the past five years. He spends a lot of time grandparenting and is retired. Bob did get his second "Hole in One" in golfing. He reports he is still losing hair...Bob has "good memories" of school years, and thinks we were a part of "special" times.

BARBARA BAUER RICE...Barb belongs to "Fuwoa's", an acronym for "Fed up with over achievement" whose purpose is to have fun. She enjoys collecting rare books, visiting art museums, and playing tennis. Barb and John have four children and seven grandchildren living in various cities across the country. She and John are both retired and enjoying the activities of their grandchildren...She recalls Miss Haywood (Jr. High English teacher), Maude Armstrong, and the basketball team's trip to the state finals.

JOAN BENNETT EMSHWILLER...Joan received the Sagamore of the Wabash award in 1994. She retired in 1995. Joan participates in church and community activities and volunteers in various organizations while working part-time in records retention for the Delaware County Superior and Circuit Courts. She and Floyd enjoy traveling, elderhostels, genealogy, family, and keeping busy...Joan especially remembers seeing how many kids would fit into a car trunk to keep from paying ten cents to get into Pokagon State Park

JOANNE BILLINGS WERTENBERGER...Joanne says she and Roger have not yet retired. Their oldest of four grandchildren graduated from high school this year. Joanne still looks after her 88 year old mother.

OLIN BROWN

JAYNE BURGOYNE BEELER...Jane's husband, Frank, retired in August, 1996, from family practice medicine. She closed her "London House Antiques" in 1997. They go to Pine Island, Florida (Bokeelia) several months each year. Jayne's entire family, including sister Hope and her husband, are going to Disneyworld in November of 1999. Frank enjoys golfing, boating, fishing, and yard work. Jayne also enjoys looking after the yard, the house, the family, and playing bridge...Her special memories include coming to AHS for her sophomore year and meeting and retaining many nice friends.

MARY J. BULLOCK BOHLS... Mary retired December 31, 1996, from Phoenix Home Life, Enfield, CT. She and husband Allen moved to Eugene, Oregon in June, 1999, to be near their daughter, son-in-law, and granddaughter.

DONALD BUTLER...Like most parents and grandparents, Don's and Retha's interests center around the activities of their children and grandchildren—especially the music, athletic, and other activities of the grandchildren. Both are retired but find there still does not seem to be adequate time to do all those things that were going to get done in retirement. They have enjoyed the days of short journeys together with the Feaglers and Schooleys.

DOROTHY CARLSON STOUGHTON...Dorothy and Dick have been camping around the U.S., keeping up with their families in Chicago, Omaha, and Portland, Oregon, and taking advantage of Milwaukee's festivals, museums, and theaters...Dorothy believes tht she was a very lucky person to have grown up in Auburn and that it was great to attend a small high school "The 30's and 40's were wonderful years to be young!"

ELIZABETH CARPER WEINERT...Sis retired after thirty-two years in banking, not wanting to be considered a "permanent fixture" by younger employees. She and Bill winter in Venice, Florida, but enjoy their return to Auburn in the spring to see "old" friends, family, and neighbors. They enjoy following the activities of their grandsons.

PATRICIA CARPER GERIG...Pat's husband, Maurice, has Parkinson's and Alzheimer's diseases and is in a nursing home. Pat helps in her daughter's bridal shop in Fort Wayne. She has visited New York City on buying trips and enjoys staying with her daughter in Times Square, seeing Broadway shows, and dining in fancy restaurants. Pat gets her exercise walking every day as well as taking care of her own house and yard. She keeps busy trying to help other caregivers and visit people who have the same diseases as her husband.

LAVALLE CHORPENNING TIMMERMAN...Lavalle has been busy the past five years with grandchildren's musical activities at DeKalb and baby sitting. This past year she has been taking care of her husband, Louis, who now uses a wheelchair. When able, she attends church activities. She enjoys all the things she has been doing the past five years and says, "with God's help, I hope to continue to do so."

JUNE CURRAN NEWMAN

GLEN DELUCENAY...After retirement in 1995, Glen and Betty moved to Arcadia, Florida. He loves the Florida weather. They make two or three trips back to Auburn each year. They go to mountains in North Georgia in the summer and fall. Glen has lots of yard work tending orange trees and flowers. He goes fishing often while Betty goes "gadding about." They frequently visit Glen's sister, Shirley, on the east coast during the winter months. They entertain winter friends a lot and enjoy every minute of it.

DONALD DERROW...Don is still actively practicing dentistry. He and Nancy enjoy spending time with their children and grandchildren and each other. Don also has been known to enjoy a little fishing and golf now and then, too.

PATSY DETRICK MANZENBERGER

GEORGE DICKERSON...George has sometimes considered retiring but hasn't yet made the commitment. He is General Manager for WLRH Public Radio in Huntsville, Alabama, where he has responsibility for planning and administering operating budgets; supervising the day-to-day operation of WLRH, and occasionally producing and hosting radio programs. During the past five years, George has attended Public Radio conferences in major U.S. cities. George's wife, Carolyn, is employed by Radio Station WNDA in Huntsville, a commercial contemporary Christian broadcasting operation. They have two married daughters, and a grandson, now six months old...George remembers taking a lot of kidding about his southern accent and being given the nickname "Alabama" when he first came to Auburn. He played clarinet and alto saxophone in the high school band and in Max Glass' dance band.

CAROL EDSALL ROWIN

JANECE ENGLE LEITNER

STEVEN FEAGLER...Steve retired in May, 1996, after 32 years of practice in orthopedic surgery. Steve and Lyn will celebrate 45 years of happy married life today. (Happy Anniversary!) They travel a fair amount; and during the past five years have been to Hawaii, Greece, Turkey, Med. Isles, Holy Land, Africa (Kenya-Tanzania), Antartica, Switzerland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, and Germany. Steve plays a little golf and enjoys elk hunting and stream, dry fly fishing. They visit their four children and grandkids frequently. Steve and Lyn visited the Schooleys with the Butlers in '98...While Steve recalls no special events, he "just enjoyed our class in which I considered everyone a friend."

STEPHEN FRIBLEY...Steve "retired" two years ago from Grumman Olson at Sturgis, Michigan, where he had been working in manufacturing engineering. He went back a year ago for a few months as a temporary. He then went to their California plant last winter for four months, managing a plant renovation project. He is now working on "Retirement No. 3", some traveling, and working on lake and water quality issues in Steuben County.

Steve and Sue Belle enjoy constant E-mail connections with their children who are "scattered all over the country."...Steve has many great memories "that make the all-too-rare connections with classmates and Auburn friends so dear and special."

CAROL FRUECHTENICHT LEMING...Carol and husband, Robert, have been busy raising two granddaughters (ages 10 & 12) these last several "golden" years. They find that activity "most challenging!" Their rental properties keep them busy. Robert has Parkinsons's and no longer works. A recent grandchild—a boy, age 2, brings the total to four...Carol says she has too many wonderful, special school memories to list just one or two, and she thinks fondly of everyone in our class.

WILLIAM GEISER...Bill had his second by-pass surgery in 1997. He and Jeanne retired from their lamp shade business last January. They experienced the pleasure of seeing their oldest grandchild finish her studies at Purdue University last May. Bill and Jeanne live close to both of their children and enjoy watching them raise their families. A major summer activity is attending many summer baseball games, since four of their grandchildren are involved. They are looking forward to doing some traveling in the future.

KATHLEEN GERIG HENKEL...As a senior citizen, Kathleen says she, "is having the time of my life." Last summer, she and Wally toured England, Ireland, Wales,and Scotland. Next year they are planning to travel to Europe and to the Oberammergau, (Germany) festival. They have spent recent winters in the West Palm Beach area in Florida, close to their daughter and family who live in the Keys. They are busy attending basketball, soccer, and baseball games and tennis matches of their grandchildren in Decatur. They have three children and eight grandchildren. For the past four years, Kathleen has been the accompanist for the "Edelweiss Singers," a Berne Community Men's Choir. She finds it a challenge and it keeps her practicing...She remembers when the high school band had Igor Buketoff as a guest conductor. She also remembers the great basketball teams—especially the famous '49!! She has fond memories of her elementary music teacher, Miss Brandon, who encouraged her to pursue music.

GERALD GOINGS...Gerald worked at Dana, Auburn, for thirty years, before retiring in 1980. He retired from farming in 1982. He then worked at carpentry until March of 1995, when he suffered a heart attack. He finished a house he was building in 1997, and suffered a stroke in January, 1998, but is still going strong.

PATRICIA HAINES THOMAS...Pat and Bill have lived in Homosassa, Florida for ten years. Pat worked as a secretary at Wilder-Fountains Funeral Home for seven years. Bill decided to work part-time at a local golf course cutting greens, mowing fairways, and landscaping. They play golf everywhere in the area. They especially enjoy and always look forward to visits from their close friends, the Wertenbergers, when they come to Florida in the winter.

DONNA HART ROSENBERRY...Donna retired from Meadowhaven Health Care in Butler in December, 1995. After spending time in the Smoky Mountains, she and Bill bought a trailer in an RV resort bordering the Smokies. They enjoy that country, which they find beautiful every season of the year. They have six grandchildren, all adults, and four great grandchildren. Donna and Bill celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary June 6. They enjoy activities with Marilyn and John Hess and Kathleen and Wally Henkel and Norma and Gene Diederich. Donna also enjoys quilting and knitting...Donna recalls how different things used to be at school with no cafeterias, no computers, adding and subtracting without a calculator, and when typing class had only one electric typewriter.

SUZANNE HENDRICKS ZEISLOFT...Suzanne retired from The Auburn State Bank in December, 1993, after forty-five years in banking as a Trust Officer and Ass't. V.P. After working some summers for vacationers at the bank, she retired again in 1997. Suzanne still enjoys reading, and books are a favorite. She has a new computer and enjoys using the E-mail to keep in touch with her son, his wife, and three grandchildren in Chicago. She and Zelwyn make frequent trips to Chicago and the past four years have spent the winter months in Florida. She enjoys researching genealogy and using the Internet. Her dream is going back to England before getting too old to travel...Suzanne always enjoyed singing and remembers how exciting it was to sing a solo with the band and chorus. She recalls enjoying the basketball games and activities with friends. She also recalls teachers like Armstrong, Dawson, Duguid, Gump, Weathers, and Wood and the things we learned in their classes.

MARVIN HILDEBRANDT

CARRELL HINSEY BOLTON...Carrell is still self employed at her store "Needlepoint of La Jolla"; and after twenty-three years, she has no thought of retirement. With her daughter, Michelle, she enjoys boating, sking, and golf. Carrell has two grandchildren. She was recently reelected to the board of the National Needlework Assn. for another three-year term...Carrell remembers how glad she was to come back to Auburn to be with her grade school friends. She left in the 6th grade and returned as a junior.

DELLA MAE HORN RAY

WILLIAM HOUTZER...After four years in the Air Force, Bill then spent forty-five years in the vending business in Indiana and the Miami and Venice areas in Florida. He has been active in veterans affairs, having served both as Commander of the American Legion Post of Venice and the Disabled Veterans. Bill and Eva have been married for forty-two years. Eva was Bill's mail-order bride, born in Czechoslovakia and moving to Germany after the Russians took over. Bill met her at the ship in New York in October, 1956; they married four months later. Bill says that marrying Eva was the smartest thing he has ever done. She is a nurse at Venice Hospital and is currently visiting relatives in the Czech Republic.

SALLY HURSH PASCHAL...Sally retired in 1993. She divides her time among her Hamilton Lake Condo, Arizona, and Avilla, IN. She has two sons, seven grandchildren, and two great grandchildren. Her daughter is deceased. Her sons and grandchildren all love the lake, so she has a lot of lake guests. Sally had back surgery in 196 and foot surgery in April of this year—both surgeries due to arthritis. As her foot was recovering, a hammer dropped on two reconstructed toes, but that has not stopped Sally...Sally says she always loved school and has special memories of attending grade school in the country and riding her pony to school.

JOYCE HUSSELMAN MARKEY

ROBERT KOKENGE

JACK LOCHNER...Jack has found the past five years with Lory have been fulfilling, albeit rapidly passing by. He remains retired from the military, (having, he says, reached that age where the government considers it would be futile to recall him, even in the direst of emergencies). He says he finds this of great solace, since there is no way he could ever fit into his uniform. Jack still is the proprietor of an antique furniture restoration business in Tacoma, Washington. Jack gets an age reality check when parties come in with an item, state that their grandmother purchased it in the early 1930's, and then ask, "I know that this is very, very old, but can it be restored?"...All of Jack's memories of high school remain special and he says, "believe it or not, all very pleasant...be they of athletic or academic activities." Among the many, he still remembers the joy of beating rival Garrett HS in sports, or trying to out guess Miss Maude Armstrong on the virtues of "iambic pentameter verse" (which to this day he says he can't rationally explain to his grandchildren).

TED MAGNUSON...Ted retired in December, 1993. He and Patsy have been doing a fair amount of traveling in the western states. Their children currently live in California and Georgia. They live in an active adult community, and find there is always lots to do...cards, pool parties, dances, entertainment, buffets, etc. Ted enjoys spending time on the computer. His sports activities include senior softball, tennis, and biking. They can travel throughout their community in an electric golf cart. Ted says they really like living in Arizona.

DALE MARSHALL

JOAN MAVIS McINTURF...Jo retired as an elementary school principal at the end of 1995. (She reports that she has the same children and grandsons as Ken, and attends the same sports activities.) She is active in AAUW, AARP, and other community activities. Jo plays in an orchestra and sings in a choir. She enjoys traveling with Ken, playing bridge, and gardening. Jo is becoming computer literate and is looking forward to the twenty-first century!

KENNETH McINTURF...Ken retired from banking in 1992. He is a "wanabee" farmer and has a small English walnut orchard. He and Jo have two adult children and three grandsons, ages 4 to 15. They attend lots of sports activities—soccer, baseball, and basketball. Ken is active in the community and church activities and enjoys traveling. He has seen thirty-one countries and is learning to play bridge and use the computer.

WAYNE MICHAEL...Wayne retired in 1994 from Auburn Gear. With his brother, Al, Wayne built a house in the country during '94 and '95. Wayne loves gardening, woodworking, and airplane models. He has been called back to Auburn Gear on a consulting basis. Sue retired in July. Wayne has retired from preaching but now is more involved with his church where he is an Elder...Special memories in elementary school: playing football and other sports, junior high: sports plus that special girl, Lois, and high school: sports plus that special girl, Lois.

NORMA MUSSER DIEDERICH...Norma and Gene built a new house and enjoy not having to climb steps. She has a new hip and a new knee. They enjoy their "sun spot" in Florida, and Norma is learning to fish. She likes going to estate sales and bird watching. They have four children, six grandchildren, and one great grandson. She and Gene will be celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary in November...Norma especially remembers the two people who helped her through sewing and Maude's class.

CLAYTON MYERS...Clayton and his wife, Elly, are both retired. They like to spend most of spring, summer and fall at their lake cottage on Irish Lake near North Webster, Indiana. They both enjoy watching their grandchildren in all of their activities.

WAYNE OPENLANDER

RALPH PACKER...Ralph, in recent years, took up residence again in Auburn. He and Barbara have four grandchildren, three girls, (including twins), and a boy.

EARL PATRICK...Earl is retired, and has spent the past five winters in southern Florida—seven months there, and five months back in Auburn. He plans to return each year as long as his money and his health hold out!...Earl's special memories are of his high school sweetheart.

DELORA PETERS LEPLEY

JOHN QUINLAN

JAMES SCHOOLEY...Jim and Mary Alice still live on a small farm with horses and sheep, and lots of sawing and hammering. They have eight grandchildren, who they find to be great fun. They typically go to the beach for a week or two in late summer. They watch Luke Recker once in a while. Jim plays golf with a couple of the kids and with a retired group. Jim and his son, Bob, have golfed in Scotland several times. Jim plays a little tennis—mostly singles. He is still working on a history of the National Bureau of Standards—its centennial comes in 2001. [In characteristic modesty, Jim has neglected to mention that in March, 1998, he was inducted into the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame. Way to go, "Fireball!"]...Jim's special memories include spelling bees, math problems from Miss Dobrick (first grade), the funny tower on the Junior High School, nearly every day at Auburn High—sports, "Devil's Journal," parades—What's not to like or remember?

MARILYN SEE HESS...Marilyn and John are enjoying grandchildren's activities. They have participated in some fifty-mile bike rides and have done some traveling in their motor home...Marilyn recalls waiting in line to get into the gym to get a good seat for the sectional basketball games and the great times in G.A.A. after school.

MARGARET SELLERS McKINNEY...Margaret says she and John are enjoying retirement. She keeps busy by collecting cruets, music boxes, condiment jars, and tack pins. She also knits, sews, and quilts. They attend distant garage sales as well as local garage sales and rummage sales. She also does gardening and yard work; and like most of us, doesn't know how she had time to work. She has been researching McKinney genealogy, doing computer games and E-mail...Margaret's memories include enjoying the activities at DeSoto playground and the noon ball games at Jr. High. She also remembers Pop Weathers' history, civics, and economics classes; and Miss Armstrong and Mrs. Teeters classes have some fond memories for her.

DENNIS SHAMBAUGH

CAROL SMITH MARKS

RICHARD SMITH

PATRICIA SOCKRIDER OMSPACH...Pat and Bill continue to enjoy retirement and "relatively good health." They are also enjoying their fourteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren. They moved to Florida last year and built their second home there. Pat says they love their new life-style and new friends, and are keeping busy with golf, boating, bowling, shuffle board, and other activities. They recently entertained friends from Australia and plan a trip to Australia next year. Pat still does some knitting—making little hats for newborns at the local hospital.

FRANCES STAFFORD CARNIHAN

LELAND STUMP...Leland and Sue regret that they will be unable to attend the 50th Anniversary Reunion, as they have agreed to serve one year in charitable work and will not be home until June, 2000. They send their love and respect to all. Leland says he feels honored to have been a member of the "Class of '49" and,"until we meet again at the next reunion," Leland says, "may love and happiness be your lot."

VELMA JEAN WEIMER MAIER

WILLIAM WEINERT...Bill enjoys the winters in Florida with Sis. They particularly enjoy seeing the spring training baseball games. They also enjoy the nice beaches and boating, fishing, and swimming. Bill keeps busy with home maintenance chores and yard work which he says keeps him young.

NANCY WESTERN DERROW...Nancy is enjoying time spent with family—husband, children, and grandchildren. She is thankful for good health and is still working part time at Waanders' Bookmark.

MARY LU WIDNEY KAIN...Mary Lu finds that the past five years have gone by so quickly, it's hard to remember what has changed. She no longer works, but Roger can't seem to bring himself to depart from the company from which he retired earlier. They especially enjoy their children and grandchildren, all of whom live within a three-hour drive. They spend the month of March in Florida where they see friends who used to live in Auburn...Mary Lu, like most of the '49 class, remembers our senior year and basketball, and, thanks to Maude Armstrong, "you can't 'was' a fly."

NOLA WILSON GIRARDOT...Nola retired from The Aro Corporation eight years ago, and she and Vince have been spending the winters in Bonita Springs, Florida. The past two winters, Nola has taken tole painting lessons and electronic keyboard lessons. She enjoys walking, swimming, cross stitching, and painting. They were in Alaska two years ago and hope to go to the Panama Canal this coming spring.

SHIRLEY WOLFF STONE

JOAN ZERNS ALBERTS ...Jo and Jack have eight children between them, fourteen grandchildren; and their first great grandchild is due soon. They have been retired from full dental practice since 1991, but do spend time doing dental care in Haiti. They are active in local church and missions. They enjoy pool parties during the summer and foreign and domestic travel in the fall and winter, together and with friends.
